

BOOKS FOR SALE AT THE EURASIAN ASSOCIATION ONLINE CATALOGUE

- 1)  Title: DR. PAGLAR: EVERYMAN'S HERO
Author: Rex Shelley
Price: $30.00
Synopsis: A story that should have been told long ago, this book shares the life of Charles Paglar (1894-1954), a well-known and well-loved doctor and community leader of his time, from wartime troubles to his political career.
-

- 2)  Title: ELVIS STILL LIVES IN KATONG
Author: Denyse Tessensohn
Price: $20.00
Synopsis: Celebrating Eurasiana in Old Singapore.
-

- 3)  Title: EURASIAN HERITAGE DICTIONARY
Author: Valerie Scully & Catherine Zuzarte
Price: $28.00
Synopsis: More than 9000 Kristang and English headword and sample sentences. Includes pronunciation guide and grammar notes.
-

- 4)  Title: FACES OF COURAGE
Author: Sibil Kathigas, Gm / Chin Peng / Norma Mirafior & Ian Ward
Price: $26.00
Synopsis: The first in-depth study of Malaya's legendary war-time heroine, Sibil Kathigas, and the impact her dauntless decisions and actions had on the members of her immediate family.
-

-
- 5)
- Title: FLAVOURS OF CHANGE: DESTINY AND DIPLOMACY, RECOLLECTIONS OF A SINGAPORE AMBASSADOR
- Author: J F Conceicao
- Price: $25.00
- Synopsis: The author, a former MP and diplomat, recalls his youth in Katong and during the Japanese Occupation of Singapore and his later years as educator and politician – with vividness, poignancy and a touch of humour.
-

- 6)
- Title: GATEWAY TO EURASIAN CULTURE
- Author: Asiapac Culture - Montage Culture Series
- Price: $10.00
- Synopsis: Captures and preserves the customs, culture and traditions of Eurasians. A most useful reference book into Eurasian heritage. Ideal for schools.
-

- 7)
- Title: GATEWAY TO SINGAPORE CULTURE
- Author: Asiapac Culture
- Price: $10.00
- Synopsis: A summary of history, religion, customs, culture, food and festivals, of the major races in Singapore: the Chinese, Eurasians, Indians, Malays & Peranakans..
-

- 8)
- Title: IN THE GRIP OF A CRISIS
- Author: Rudy Mosbergen
- Price: $20.00
- Synopsis: This book is a modest attempt to highlight some incidents and events which took place during the Japanese Occupation of Singapore 1942-45, seen through the keen eye of a Eurasian teenager.
-

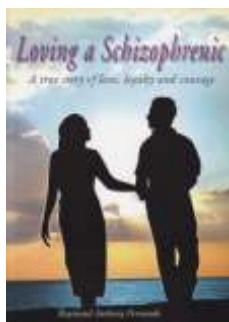

-
- 9)  Title: JOURNEY TO THE STRAITS : THE SHEPHERDSON STORY
Author: Kevin L Shepherdson
Price: $30.00
Synopsis: Records the fascinating odyssey of the Shepherdson clan, starting with the sea-captains in the late 18th Century England to present-day.

-
- 10)  Title: JUNGLES ARE NEVER NEUTRAL
Author: The diaries of Brother Patricius O'Donovan fsc
Price: $20.00
Synopsis: An extraordinary war-time story of exile and survival in Bahau. It reflects the indomitable spirit of a community that refused to be daunted by the hostilities of invaders and the challenges of jungle life.

-
- 11)  Title: KRISTANG 3-PACK
Author: Joan Marbeck
Price: $50.00
Synopsis: An insight on the Kristang language.

-
- 12)  Title: LOVE AND WAR IN OLD MALACCA
Author: Joe Conceicao
Price: $40.00
Synopsis: A story about the Portuguese occupation of Malacca; the Kristang people of Portuguese descent, the chitty Malacca and the Peranakans.
-

13)

Title: LOVING A SCHIZOPHRENIC

Author: Raymond Anthony Fernando

Price: $15.00

Synopsis: A true story of love, loyalty and courage. It chronicles the trials and tribulations of a courtship, a 30-year marriage and living with mental illness.

14)

Title: MARY'S RECIPES

Author: Mary Gomes

Price: $30.00

Synopsis: In her second cookbook, Mary Gomes shares her Eurasian and Peranakan family's secret recipes, celebrating a true Singapore kitchen.

15)

Title: RECIPES OF LOVE

Author: Asmah Laili

Price: $30.00

Synopsis: This cookbook contains a repertoire of cosmopolitan dishes from the East and the West, including Eurasian dishes. Its contributors are well-known cooks, celebrities and dignitaries.

16)

Title: SINGAPORE AND THE MANY HEADED MONSTER

Author: Joe Conceicao

Price: $18.00

Synopsis: This book is a personal and heart-felt look at the tragic instances when the many-headed monster – riots – reared its ugly heads, and marred Singapore's history.

17)

Title: SINGAPORE EURASIANS : MEMORIES & HOPES

Author: Editor: Myrna Braga-Blake
Co-Researcher: Ann Ebert-Oehlers

Price: $32.00

Synopsis: A written heritage woven from memories, documents, artifacts and fragments of grandmother stories for future generations. Though written for Eurasians and their friends, other Singaporeans too will find something of interest in this delightful collection of stories.

18)

Title: SINGAPORE HEADS AND TAILS

Author: Denyse Tessensohn

Price: $20.00

Synopsis: Ethnic characteristics colorfully displayed and the lilt and idiom of the local languages that make Singapore English so special are sensitively portrayed.

19)

Title: SINGAPORE'S HERITAGE
Through Place of Historical Interest

Author: Dhoraisingam S Samuel

Price: $40.00

Synopsis: As Singapore undergoes rapid development, we are often engrossed in pursuits that are directly relevant to our livelihood and do not spare much thought on our past. If this trend is not corrected, more of us will grow up ignorant of our heritage. This book uses places of interest to glimpse into Singapore's heritage and past.

20)

Title: SUCCESS IN FRANCHISING

Author: Vincent Gabriel

Price: $20.00

Synopsis: This book is a useful tool in building knowledge on franchising agreements, business models, research, planning and investigation to discover the franchise that best meets your needs.

21)

Title: SUCCESS IN THE EDUCATION BUSINESS

Author: Vincent Gabriel

Price: $20.00

Synopsis: A wealth of information to make your education business a success.

22)

Title: TEARS OF A TEEN-AGE COMFORT WOMAN

Author: Swee Lian (Edited by Ralph Modder)

Price: $20.00

Synopsis: A true account of the courage and suffering of 'Swee Lian' who, like thousands of other women who were forced into Japanese army brothels during WWII, had withheld their real identities because of the shame their stories would have brought to themselves and their families.

23)

Title: THAT'S HOW IT GOES

Author: Jock Oehlers

Price: $30.00

Synopsis: In this engrossing and heartwarming autobiography, Jock Oehlers brings readers with him on his life's journey, from a carefree young boy growing up in Colonial Singapore, through the terror and hardship of the Japanese Occupation, to becoming a successful oral surgeon in modern-day Singapore.

24)

Title: THE DEVIL IN ME

Author: David Kraal

Price: $11.00

Synopsis: Tasty tidbits on love and life: Confessions of a Singaporean Eurasian. A selection of newspaper columns that appeared in the Straits Times between 1997 and 2002 by journalist David Kraal.

25)

Title: THE EURASIAN COOKBOOK

Author: Mary Gomes

Price: $30.00

Synopsis: This is the first attempt at collating Singapore's Eurasian recipes. Eurasian food may be little known outside the community but the author hopes her book will help us understand the community's enduring love affair with this unique cuisine.

26)

Title: THE FAIRY FOLK AND SHE

Author: Mary-Anne Grosse Ivie

Price: $15.00

Synopsis: A Tale of Friendship and Love. A young woman – whose mother is the old woman who lives in a shoe – finds the virtues she learned at home to be very handy.

27)

Title: THE FAR EAST REMEMBERED: ANIMAL TRADING AND CHANGE

Author: Diane Kraal

Price: $35.00

Synopsis: A captivating account of Antonio de Souza, an 18th century Portuguese who sailed the return inter-continental trade route from Lisbon to India and Macao, and how his descendants contributed to the economy and vibrancy of the old Straits Settlements.

28)

Title: THE GREAT GENEALOGICAL SEARCH

Author: Kevin Shepherdson

Price: $22.40

Synopsis: A remarkable story of how one family traced its roots in the East Indies and discovered its British ancestry. A breakthrough book on genealogy research, from traditional and online research to DNA testing methods.

29)

Title: THE PASSIONATE ISLANDERS

Author: Ralph Modder

Price: $25.00

Synopsis: A book based on factual events and situations about the light and darker sides of life in Singapore during British colonial rule as well as before and during the Japanese invasion of Malaya in December 1941 and Singapore in February 1942.

30)

Title: THE PORTUGUESE MISSION IN SINGAPORE

Author: James Boss

Price: $20.00

Synopsis: This study traces the origins of the presence of the Portuguese Mission in Singapore and the establishment of St. Joseph's Church in 1825, its role in Catholic life in Singapore in the context of colonial society and an independent Singapore.

31)

Title: THE RED CHEONG-SAM

Author: Ralph Modder

Price: $19.00

Synopsis: Glimpses of life in a colonial era. The thirty-one stories selected for his volume portray the scandalous, tragic, violent, romantic and lighter sides of life at various levels of the segregated English and Asian communities in Malaya [now Malaysia] and Singapore under British colonial rule.

32)

Title: THE TRAVELS AND ADVENTURES OF SANG DOL

Author: Joe Conceicao

Price: $35.00

Synopsis: A story about a fictitious 15th century heroic character, Sang Dol, who has travelled far and wide.

33)

Title: WARTIME KITCHEN

Author: Wong Hong Suen

Price: $35.00

Synopsis: This book captures the resilience and adaptability of a people faced with limited resources and shortages during the Japanese Occupation and post-war Singapore. Presenting in-depth research alongside anecdotes, personal reminiscences, food-related vignettes and a collection of wartime recipes, the book vividly documents a crucial decade in Singapore's history with a particular emphasis on eating.

Updated 2nd June 2011