

NEU PC Plus Programme

The NEU PC Plus Programme offers students and persons with disabilities from low income households the opportunity to own a brand new computer at an affordable price.

PC-BUNDLE SCHEME

- This scheme provides two tier subsidy for applicants to own a new computer with free software and three years of free subscription to broadband services.
- This scheme offers financial assistance to full-time students (aged 25 years and below) who are unable to co-pay for the computer applied under the PC-Bundle scheme
- This scheme allow interested schools to process, procure and deploy infocomm devices, software or broadband services on behalf of their students from low-income families, so as to meet the schools' and students' learning objectives and needs.

A PC-Bundle includes:

- Your choice of computer
- Three years free broadband subscription
- Antivirus Software
- Productivity tools
- Internet filtering service
- Delivery & installation
- Productivity Tools
- Warranty

Eligibility Criteria

- Be a Singapore Citizen or Permanent Resident
- Has a permanent disability OR is a full-time student (aged 25 and below) in a Government/Government-Aided School, Junior College, Centralised Institute, Independent School, Specialised Independent School, Specialised School, Institute of Technical Education, Polytechnic or MOE-funded Special Education School
- The gross monthly household income or per capita income does not exceed $3,400 or $900 ($1,125 if there is a permanently disabled household member) respectively

Each eligible household can only apply for one computer, regardless of the total number of school-going children and/or household members who have permanent disabilities.

Past recipients of a PC bundle under the NEU PC Plus Programme may reapply only after three years from the last deployment to the household.

Students from one-to-one computing programme are qualified to apply regardless of the fact that their household are current beneficiaries, with support from school.
